A diagram of a mechanical press, likely a guillotine, with a large exclamation mark to its left. Two arrows point down from the top of the press towards the material being cut, with the word "click" in a starburst shape next to each arrow.
